Jackson County 4-H October Updates

- Club Charters, Re-Charters and Letter of Compliance Due in 4-H Office by October 10, 2014
  In order to conduct ANY activities as a 4-H Club, your charter must be in order. Clubs that have not complied by Friday, October 10, 2014 will not be permitted to participate in any 4-H events.

- National 4-H Week
  National 4-H Week is October 5-11, 2014

- National Youth Science Day — October 8, 2014
  Jackson County 4-H is participating in the National Youth Science Day event in a “BIG” way! The Jackson County SeaPerch Robotics Club kicked off the event on October 6, 2014. We will also be holding a “launch” with Graceville Elementary on October 8, 2014, and with Golson Elementary on October 10, 2014!

- Tractor Supply Fall Paper Clover Campaign
  Help support Jackson County 4-H by donating when you shop at your Marianna Tractor Supply, October 8 – 19, 2014.

- Make A Difference Mondays
  This is a series of volunteer trainings that can be done from home or at the 4-H Office. You receive credit for the mandatory volunteer training hours that are required for all volunteers. Next session is October 20th, 7/6PM Central

- 4-H Club Member and Volunteer Resources
  Your Jackson County 4-H web page is revised continually, to provide you with as much information and as many resources, as possible. If you have not visited it lately, you need to check it out!

- Panhandle Youth Expo
  The 5th Annual Panhandle Youth Expo will be held October 21-23, 2014. 4-H and FFA youth from Jackson County will be competing in arts, crafts, livestock and poultry exhibition, and judging events.

- Jackson County 4-H Ag Adventures
  The Jackson County Extension, in partnership with Florida Agriculture In The Classroom, Farm Credit and Farm Bureau, will be hosting Ag Adventures at the UF/IFAS North Florida Research and Education Center in Greenwood, Florida, on October 28 and 29, 2014.

- Jackson County 4-H Has Partnered with Panhandle Public Library Cooperative System (PPLCS)
  The Jackson County 4-H has partnered with the Panhandle Public Library Cooperative System (PPLCS) in hopes of reaching more youth & adults. We are also working together to bring even more exciting learning opportunities to Jackson County. PPLCS is made up of 4 counties: Calhoun, Holmes, Jackson, and Washington. You can visit a location or online at www.pplcs.net for more information.